TO OPERA LOVERS

The D.G.O.S. ANNUAL FESTIVAL OF ITALIAN OPERA will open on Easter Monday, 3rd April, 1961. The Operas selected are: AIDA and RIGOLETTO (Verdi); NORMA (Bellini); MANON LESCAUT (Puccini); DON PASQUALE (Donizetti) and IL MATRIMONIO SEGRETO (Cimarosa).

Negotiations are well advanced for the appearance during the Festival of some favourite artists and for the debut of other important new artists.

Your continued support is absolutely vital to the Society and it can best be given by becoming a PATRON MEMBER if you are not one already. ROTHENBURG

A handsome and fortified town of Germany situated on an eminence beside the river Tauber and on the railway line from Steinach to Dombühl. It is still enclosed by defence walls with many fine towers and entrance gates. Within these walls is a medieval town, in an almost complete state of preservation, unchanged in its visual appearance and little altered in its way of life from the days of the Thirty Years War. To the student of History and Architecture an examination of Rothenburg is essential.
